1. The last group of Japanese to be repatriated from Shantung Province are at Tsingtao awaiting transportation. Of this group eighty-one arrived from Tsinan [117-00, 36-41] during the period 19-21 September 1947; others are those who were not repatriated aboard the SCAP LST 47, which departed from Tsingtao on 19 September.
2. The sailing of the group currently awaiting transportation will terminate the Japanese repatriation program for Tsingtao and Shantung Province.
3. The Chinese Government will retain a few skilled Japanese as technicians, physicians and advisors.
